Welcome to # Clemson

It is my pleasure to officially extend the known hospitality of Clemson.

We want you to enjoy not only this highest football game between old athletic foes, but also the wholesome camaraderie you find in this extraordinary stadium of 'good seats only'.

Clemson today is a college in name, but a university in makeup. It is large enough to serve and to share, yet small enough to be personal and friendly. It is an historic place, embodied by lovely old acres and imposing new buildings. But, too, it is a vital place; stimulating, challenging and satisfying—permeated by a spirit of learning and finding.

We think, with some prejudice, that Clemson is a wonderful place to live, to work, and—as we are sure you will agree this afternoon—to play. We hope, too, you will come to feel it is a good place to visit and will plan to be with us often.

About The Coach . . .

The 1963 season marks Frank Howard's 33rd on the Clemson staff and his 24th as head coach. Clemson and Howard have grown together—both physically and in prominence. The Tigers have become known nationally under his guidance.

Howard's Tigers have played in six major post-season bowl games—more than any other team in the Atlantic Coast Conference—and the Tigers also have the best bowl record of any ACC team with four wins and three losses.

In the 10 years of conference competition, Howard has guided the Tigers to an overall 63-36-1 mark, second only to Duke. Against league foes only, the Tigers are 36-16-1 going into the 1963 season.

Of the 581 games Clemson has played since it's first team, Howard has seen 310 of these—225 as head coach and 85 as line coach.

The Century Club . . .

Fourteen coaches who are at major football institutions (as classified by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau) have now won 100 or more games in their careers. No coach joined the "Century Club" last season but there are three possible members this year. Buff Donelli of Columbia and R. L. Blackman of Dartmouth have each won 93 games and Frank Camp of Louisville has 92 triumphs. Coach Frank Howard of Clemson ranks sixth in the nation for the most wins in a career. Listed below are the "Century Club" members.

The Georgia Series

The Georgia Bulldogs are ancient rivals of Clemson, dating back to 1897. This off and on clashing started two years prior to the N. C. State series, but like the Wolfpack game of last week, this game today is 34th between the two institutions.

This should be a natural. With the exception of Furman, Georgia is the closest to Clemson of any gridiron opponents—closer than any of the Tigers' Atlantic Coast family foes.

After the first meeting the Tigers and Bulldogs met 19 consecutive times before taking a lull following the 1916 game. Georgia held the slimmest edge, 10-9-1, after the first 20. The Bulldogs had shutout the Tigers eight times and Clemson had turned the same trick seven times.

The two across-the-lake rivals got back together in 1919 and a 0-0 tie resulted. Then the Bulldogs captured 10 straight victories to go away out front in the series. It wasn't until 1955 that the Tigers broke the skein with a 26-7 triumph in "Death Valley."

That was the last meeting of the two gridiron powers whose teams have often graced post season bowl classics until 1962.

Last year the Bulldogs paid another visit to "The Valley," and no one could have asked for a more exciting opening. Hollywood doesn't dream of any like that one, let alone trying to stage it before the camera.

Bill McCullough kicked off to Hal Davis on the Clemson two and the Tiger sophomore, playing in just his fourth game, took ye ole pigskin and set sail up the middle. Some 12 seconds later the scoreboard Tiger was blinking his eyes and wagging his tail. His "relatives" had done well for the family name.

While ole Clem Tig was still licking his chops, the Bulldogs received the kickoff and was ready to put the ball in play at the 26.

Lo and behold, what happened? Larry Rakestraw found his halfback Frank Lankewicz swinging wide, connected and boom! The Bulldogs had six points. And so it went until the Georgia visitors had 24 to 16 for the Tigers.

It's highly improbable that history will repeat today, but don't bet a week's pay on it.

Are college football games everywhere pretty much the same? — the crowds — the bands — the cheers? Sure there's a similarity—but it's different here! Each game has its own distinctive flavor—spirit—tradition. So it is with uniforms we manufacture. Into them go many intangibles of experience and skill. # free substitution rule returns ... with strings attached

by Charles W. Tucker, Jr.

IN an effort to further liberalize the Intercollegiate Substitution Rule, the Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association has come up with a very original and unique rule which will undoubtedly require not only an explanation, but a little time before most of the spectators will understand it.

To put it briefly, the rule for this year concerning substitutions will be as follows: When the game clock is stopped during a period, either team may substitute as many players as they wish, including an entire new team if they desire—except during fourth down and on first down when Team B has been designated as Team A, (in other words when the ball changes hands). On these two downs each team has what we may refer to as two "Wild Card" substitutions, which may be put in whether the game clock is running or not as long as they do not interfere with play.

At first glance one might think we were returning to unlimited substitutions, but actually this is not the case at all. Even though a new team can be sent in on time-outs during any down in the series, except fourth down and when the ball changes hands, the time-outs in each half have been reduced from five to four. Also, whereas last year either team could send in a "Wild Card" on every play, this year the two "Wild Cards" can only go in on fourth down or when the ball changes hands.

During an excess time-out granted while the clock is running, the team to whom the excess time-out was allowed may only replace the injured player or players. The opponents may replace any number of players at this time. However, if the time-out is granted prior to fourth down or prior to first down when Team B has been designated as Team A, neither team may replace more than two players in addition to the injured player or players. It will probably appear odd to the spectators to see a fourth down punting situation with Team A permitted to substitute only two players when they would probably like to put in an entire new team, and just as odd after Team B has received the kick and is awarded first down to be limited to two substitutions when they would probably like to put in an entire new offensive team. Nevertheless, the rule is very specific on these two downs and either team will be limited to a maximum of two substitutions. Under the new substitution rule it will not be necessary to check in substitutes as heretofore because the number of times a player has been in or out of the game will not affect his eligibility. This alone should speed up the game and keep it moving smoothly.

While there are the usual number of rewrites for the purpose of simplification and clarification, there are two other major changes which should be noted here.

AN OFFENSIVE PLAYER IN MOTION TOWARD THE BALL NOT PERMITTED TO CLIP IN AREA WHERE FORMERLY PERMITTED.

Under the clipping rule, which has been in effect for a good many years, clipping was not permitted anywhere on the field of play, except in a zone which was defined as the rectangular area centered on the middle lineman of the offensive team and extending four yards laterally in each direction and three yards longitudinally in each direction.

For the past several years there has been a growing complaint among the coaches as well as players of the punishment a defensive end or a backer-up received from the offensive wingback. The play was a very simple one, the offensive team would line up with the wingback a yard behind his line of scrimmage and five to ten yards outside of his offensive end. On a given eadence eount, this wingback would start in motion toward the center just prior to the snap of the ball. Once the ball was snapped, the defensive end or backer-up would cross the line of scrimmage in an effort to break up the play and the offensive wingback, who, by this time had built up a "head of steam", would let him have it either from the side or in the back. The side block is perfectly legal, but anywhere else on the field blocking an opponent in the back is construed as a clip and so penalized.

Officials were constantly berated by the coaches for not calling what looked like an obvious clip, but the officials were powerless to do anything about it because of the area in which clipping was permitted.

This year the Rules Committee has wisely seen fit to add the following sentence to the definition of the area in which clipping is permitted — "An offensive player, outside this area, in motion toward the ball when it is snapped is not permitted to clip in this area." This one sentence will now eliminate the possibility of a wingback hitting a defensive player from behind in that area and it will also eliminate many injuries inherent in this play.

BACKFIELD PLAYER IN POSITION TO TAKE HAND TO HAND SNAP FROM CENTER NOW ELIGIBLE TO RECEIVE FORWARD PASS.

In the past years a T-Quarterback, who was under the center in a position to take a hand to hand snap, was not an eligible pass receiver. He could lateral the ball to another back or go back and throw a pass, but he was ineligible to receive a forward pass himself.

In an important game last year, the T-Quarterback, after lateralling a ball to another back, proceeded down field into the opponent's end zone. In the confusion that ensued, the passer spotted this back in the end zone and, not realizing that he was ineligible, threw the ball to him thereby scoring a touchdown which apparently was missed by the officials as well as players at the time. This is a very easy and understandable error to make and the Rules Committee has now decided that there is no reason why this player should not be eligible to receive a forward pass, and has changed the rule to read that "each player who is legally in his backfield is eligible to receive a forward pass."

Clemson Football Network...

Coggins

Osborne

The Clemson Football Network is celebrating its 10th year of broadcasting this season, and since its inception, has grown to be one of the largest collegiate networks in the nation.

The network, operated wholly by the athletic association, is dedicated to make available to all stations, Clemson football games at economical rates thus giving Tiger fans and other interested parties an opportunity to hear Clemson football when it is not possible to attend the games.

The network has been one of the most successful anywhere. During the 1961 season the network had over 500 station broadcasts, or an average of better than 50 stations per game—an all-time high. Feeds were made to stations in North Carolina, Georgia and South Carolina.

The same two familiar voices will again be on the network for the 1963 season. Jimmie Coggins will handle the play-by-play commentary while Ed Osborne will describe the pre-game warmup, give time out chatter and interview visiting scouts, sportswriters and other personalities in the press box during halftime.

Coggins, the dean of South Carolina sports broadcasters, is owner of Station WKDK in Newberry and is co-owner with Osborne of Station WBCU in Union and WAGS in Bishopville.

Coggins broke into radio 29 years ago with WSPA in Spartanburg. He also worked at WAIM in Anderson before going to Newberry in 1949. Prior to joining the network in 1954 he broadcast the Clemson games during the seasons of 1936-37-38-47-48-49. In 1950-51-52 he did the "Game of the Week" for Station WIS, Columbia.

Osborne served as director of both the Clemson News Bureau and the sports publicity office from 1947 through the spring of 1950. The Clemson graduate then got into radio work with WMSC in Columbia as sales representative and sports director. Since early 1953 he has been manager of WBCU.

Three ways to quarterback the most important drive of the day —your drive home

1. Don't buck the line of traffic, stay in it. Fancy open field running doesn't pay on the highway.
2. When dusk falls and your visibility is limited, slow down and turn on your lights. What you can't see can hurt you.
3. Don't try to beat the clock by speeding. Remember, when time runs out on the highway, everybody loses.
